"Drammers" Come Bome to Vote. Jefferson-Ward Democratic Club will have a mass-meeting at the Police Court-room to-night, and the speakers they have aunounced are: Hon, Messrs. Beverley B. Munford, of Pittsylvania; J. Marshall McCormick, of Clarke; and George D. Wase.

Mr. Munford is a well-known member of the Legislature, is a fluent speaker, and well posted on all the ssues of the canvass, especially those relating to purely State affairs, and he never fails to interest his audience. He belongs to the well-known family of Munford, whose members for half a century or more have been distinguished ublic men of Virginia.

Mr. McCormick is "the little giant" of the State Senate. He is the author of the celebrated McCormick bill, which took the appointment of the election machinery of Virginia out of the hands of a partisan judiciary and placed it in electoral boards chosen by the Legislature. He is a gentleman of great intellectual activity and endowments is bold and aggressive, but withal courtly, and will make a fine, sensible ringing speech. Mr. Wise needs no introduction to a Richmond audience. He has a wonderful hold upon our people, and whenever he takes the stump they expect from him scathing exposition of the frailties of the enemy.
